West Apprehensive Of Storm Reported Moving Into The California Mountains By the Associated Press

By The Associated Press The groundhog, fabled weather prophet of American history, exposed himself briefly today (Wednesday), then disappeared into his burrow.

In the American tradition but without any scientific basisthe groundhog's action means: Six more weeks of winter.

Observed in Punsawtawney, Pa. at 7:32 a. m. (EST) the groundhog peeked out into the 20 degree cold, then ducked back into his earthly home.

Legend says if the groundhog sees his shadow Feb. 2 it means six additional weeks of winter.

Miss Willa Johnson and Miss Dora Benz entertained the Dresden circle January 19. The early part of the evening was spent in conversation and choir practice was held for about half an hour. Refreshments of coffee, cookies and soda pop were served to about

The business meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. John Earl Farris. Plans were made to have games for the children.

New members who joined in December and January were: Mrs. Willa Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Darrance, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Van Natta, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Benz and Mr. and Mrs. Foley.

The next meeting will be held February 17th in the basement of the Methodist church.

John Zander, secretary of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, will be the speaker at a meeting of the Women's Guild of the Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church, Fourth street and Vermont avenue, Thursday afternoon. His topic will be, "The Needs of Our Community," and will be under the chairmanship of the Christian citizenship department, Mrs

W. G. Borne', chairman. Luncheon will be served at 1:00 o'clock by a committee composed of Mrs. T. J. Flessa, Mrs. Hubert Smith, Mrs. William Dixon, Mrs. Earl Eakins, Mrs. Marie Lange Mrs. William Bessmer and Mrs J. H. Brunkhorst, chairman.

The women of the church are reminded to bring new or used baby clothing for the assembling of layettes for overseas relief. The need for diapers is particularly urgent. The local guild, in identifying itself with this project, is helping to meet the 10,000 layette goal of the denomination for the alleviation of suffering among babies of the world.

A service of dedication will be conducted at the luncheon table by Mrs. Michael Wolfel, social service chairman.

The Mary-Martha circle of the Women's Guild of Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church had its first meeting of the year Monday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Liebel, 1500 East Seventh street. Mrs. Elmo Harlan assisted in serving a dessert luncheon to 19 members and two guests. Mrs. Harold B. Wright opened the meeting with a service of

Lack of Proper Nourishment Affects Many Bodily Functions

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D. Written for NEA Service

In the United States and Canada, the amount of food available has been so great that there has been a tendency to forget that in many parts of the world people live under conditions of near star-

The most striking change which comes to a person who is not getting enough food is, of course, loss of weight. The rate at which a person loses weight under conditions of insufficient diet varies. Naturally, a person who is not eating enough and is forced to do heavy work will lose weight more rapidly than one who sits at a desk all day.

Many things happen to the person who is not getting enough to eat. Because proteins—meat, fowl. and eggs, for example—are expensive foods, the loss of protein in the diet is likely to be greater than that of other foods. Lack of Nitrogen

This brings about an insufficiency of an important element in the body, namely nitrogen. When long continued, nitrogen lack produces severe symptoms, of which the so-called hunger edema, or deposits of water in the tissue, is the best known example. In those who are partially starved, therefore, the first problem is usually to give the protein for which the body is in such great need.

The teeth and bones are affected by undernutrition. The muscular tissues and the brain, nervous system, skin, hair, and eyes also feel the lack of nourishment. Indeed, all of the functions, including the heart and blood vessels, the personality and emotion, are harmfully influenced by simple lack of food.

Undernutrition is a problem in other ways. The person who, for a long time, has not had enough to eat becomes more susceptible to infection than the well-nourished individual.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions n his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D. QUESTION: Can a woman, who has had rheumatic fever in childhood, bear children?

ANSWER: The answer to this depends on the state of the heart. If the heart has escaped serious injury from the rheumatic fever, childbearing may be entirely safe. But if the heart has been seriously damaged, there will be considerable risk.

XXRUSSELL BROS.XX Still Chance To Have Your Chest X-Rayed

Since Monday 662 Have Had Such Pictures Taken

Take a deep breath and hold it momentarily, and that's all there is to it, and this procedure may save persons now afflicted or touched with tuberculosis, their lives, money, health and worry. Today through Friday there is still a chance for all Pettis countians to get your chest X-rayed at the Pettis county court house. Between 10 and 12 o'clock this morning, and 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock this afternoon, technicians will be there to take X-rays. A person doesn't even have to disrobe. A report of diagnosis will be sent to each patient with information regarding X-ray pictures taken. This work is being sponsored by the local Pettis County Tuberculosis Association. Joseph Rosenthal is the president of this association, and Mrs. Alice Crowford is the executive secretary.

Pictures Taken of 662 Since Monday, 662 persons in Pettis county have had X-ray pictures taken. Each year from now on out, the association will take X-ray pictures of school children free of charge. There is a fee of 75 cents to adults.

Tuesday was the first day for adults in Sedalia to have their chests X-rayed. Thursday's hours will be between 10 and 12 o'clock in the morning, and 1 to 5 in the afternoon and between 6 and 8 o'clock that evening. Friday will be the last convenient chance for Pettis countians to get X-rayed. Hours will be between 10 and 12 o'clock that morning and 1 and 5 o'clock that afternoon.

NEW TELEPHONE RATES

NEW telephone rates in Missouri have been authorized, effective February 1.

The company regrets that rate increases are necessary. But costs of labor and materials, continuing to rise sharply, made it necessary for us to ask over a year ago for this first general rate increase in Missouri in nearly 30 years.

Rates do not provide the money to expand and improve telephone service. That money comes from the thousands of persons willing to invest their savings in the telephone business. If people cannot expect earnings comparable to what they can get in other businesses, they will not risk their savings, and service will suffer.

We still need to spend millions on new construction-$25 million dollars in 1949 alone to expand and improve telephone service in Missouri. Even after that, much more will remain to be done.

LONG DISTANCE RATES

New rates have been set for calls within Missouri. The primary changes are:

The initial period (3 minutes) rates on daytime person-to-person calls are increased 5 to 15 cents; on daytime stationto-station calls between 56 and 162 miles, 5 to 10 cents.

Initial period (3 minutes) rates on most night and Sunday person-to-person calls are increased 5 to 30 cents; on night and Sunday station-to-station calls above 42 miles, 5 to 20 cents.

The initial period is reduced from 5 to 3 minutes on station-to-station calls with initial period rates of 15, 20 and 25 cents.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2—One of health and welfare. Clifford and Justice department "Quai D'Orsay" which actually lawyers — except for Attorney means "Dock of Orsay," but General Clark — contended the which has come to mean the French foreign office, because of its location alongside the Dock of Almost unknown is a railroad station alongside the foreign of-fice called "Gare D'Orsay." It is a little-used station. No impor-tant persons ever arrive there. But just a month ago this station became most important to the American people.

Just a stone's throw from it at the Quai D'Orsay, the gentlemen in the gray-striped pants continued busy at their professional task of maintaining the proper relations between countries. But at the Gare D'Orsay a new kind of foreign relations was taking shape — a project in amateur shape — a project in amateur diplomacy straight from the hearts of the French people.

For on the platform of the Gare D'Orsay were piled thousands of gifts for the Merci Train, which arrives in New York harbor today, as France's gesture of gratitude to the American people.

At Christmas time — the deadline for gifts to the Merci Train -the Gare D'Orsay was by all odds the busiest place in France. More than anything else it re-sembled a child's notion of Santa Claus' workshop. Merci America

There were dolls and dishes historical documents, and a Rodin statue so precious it should have been in a museum. There were busts of Benjamin Franklin and Ford 61/2 ft. half-ton Pickup for '49. busts of Franklin Roosevelt; G.V.W. 4,700 lbs. Choice of two paintings by the French masters, acework and fancy silk dresses and battle-torn flags from ancient wars. There were gifts from high personages and gifts from school children. There was a Napoleonic coach and the first motorcycle ever built; the flag that flew from the Eiffel Tower when General Patton entered in 1944 and the flag that flew over Verdun in 1918.

And all of them said, in words or in spirit, "Merci, America." A Paris business firm, carrying out this spirit of friendship, undertook to crate the gifts, without charge. It little dreamed what it bargained for. Gifts poured in from all corners of France, literally by the thousands every day. Last estimate is that the gifts - ranging from a tiny spoon to a giant bronze school spoon to a giant bronze school bell — total 100,000.

The Gare D'Orsay, before the train's departure, was packed and jammed. Crates were everywhere. On the walls of the station were signs — "Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas . . ." and so on around the wall of the station to "West Virginia and Wyoming."

Piled up by states were the gifts Piled up by states were the gifts which the French committee believed most appropriate for each. Finally they were all loaded into the old but now freshly painted boxcars labeled "40 hommes, 8 chevaux," which American soldiers knew so well in World War I. Then, after a journey to Havre, they were hoisted aboard the SS. Magellan, which today steams up New York harbor to salute the Statue of Liberty - the only similar gift of friendship from the people of any nation to the people of the United States.

Truman on Injunctions Only the palace guard knows it, but the administration's new labor bill was held up at the last minute by President Truman himself so that three major changes could be made.

One was a strong injunction clause to enable the government to crack down on John L. Lewis or any other labor leader who staged a strike endangering the national health and welfare. This was stricken out at the last minute. Also, the cooling-off period for a threatened strike was raised from 20 to 30 days. Here's the inside story of how the changes came about:

Backstage Conference One hour before Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin was scheduled to appear before the senate labor committee on Friday morning, Charles Murphy, the White House legislative representative, reported to Truman that there was still disagreement on the strike injunction clause. Truman immediately instructed than good. Clark Clifford disagreed. "Some of these labor leaders have a complex about injunctions," he declared. "But the great majority of labor won't be affected by this provision. And we've got to protect the govern-ment and the people against production shutdowns in these very critical times."
